- [2019: decision to end financing to Polish energy companies]
- [2020: implementation of a reinforced coal sector policy in third-party asset management activities]

* Data based upon 80% of BNP Paribas portfolio’s coal capacity at the end of 2018 (data used for the calculation of the Group electric mix)

The trajectory is based on the hypothesis of a full exit for each perimeter, and doesn’t take into account potential commitments terminating after the exit dates.

* Sustainable Development Scenario of the International Energy Agency = < 2°C
SDG #13 - BNP Paribas’ portfolio vs. the 2°C scenario

2°C scenario

Rationale

- Assessment of transition risk embedded in BNP Paribas’ credit portfolio
- Compliance with the TCFD* recommendations
- Anticipation of regulatory disclosure measures

During COP24 in Katowice, 5 leading banks (incl. BNP Paribas) shared a methodology to assess the alignment of their lending portfolios with global climate goals (2°C scenario of the Paris Agreement)

- Development of common tools and metrics to compare the Bank’s current portfolios to different climate scenarios (Science Based Targets)
- Sector-specific approach and focus on the most carbon-intensive sectors

Example: Automotive-technology mix analysis (not based on BNPP data)

Hypothesis:
- Climate scenarios are based on science based targets
- Portfolios are based on constant clients’ outstanding

Legend:
- Electric vehicles
- Hybrid
- Thermal

* Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosure
