SECTION III

GOVERNANCE

Article 7

The Company shall be governed by a Board of Directors composed of:

1/ Directors appointed by the Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting

There shall be at least nine and no more than eighteen Directors. Directors representing employees as well as Directors representing employee shareholders shall not be included when calculating the minimum and maximum number of Directors.

They shall be appointed for a three-year term.

When a Director is appointed to replace another Director, in accordance with applicable French laws and regulations in force, the new Director's term of office shall be limited to the remainder of the predecessor's term.

A Director's term of office shall end at the close of the Annual Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting convened to deliberate on the financial statements for the previous financial year and held in the year during which the Director's term of office expires.

Directors may be re-appointed, subject to the provisions of French law, in particular with regard to their age.

Each Director, excluding Directors representing employees and Directors representing employee shareholders, must own at least 10 Company shares.

2/ Directors elected by BNP PARIBAS SA employees

The status of these Directors and the related election procedures shall be governed by articles L. 225-27 to L. 225-34 of the French Commercial Code (Code de Commerce) as well as by the provisions of these Articles of Association.

There shall be two such Directors – one representing executive staff and the other representing non-executive staff.

They shall be elected by BNP PARIBAS SA employees.

They shall be elected for a three-year term.

Elections shall be organised by the Executive Management. The timetable and terms and conditions for elections shall be drawn up by the Executive Management in consultation with the national trade union representatives within the Company such that the second round of elections shall be held no later than fifteen days before the end of the term of office of the outgoing Directors.

Each candidate shall be elected on a majority basis after two rounds held in each of the electoral colleges.

Each application submitted during the first round of elections shall include both the candidate's name and the name of a substitute, if any.

Applications may not be amended during the second round of elections.

The candidates shall belong to the electoral college where they stand for election.

Applications other than those presented by a trade union representative within the Company must be submitted together with a document including the names and signatures of one hundred electors belonging to the electoral college where the candidate is running for election.

3/ Director representing employee shareholders

Where the report presented by the Board of Directors at the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting, in accordance with article L. 225-102 of the French Commercial Code (Code de Commerce) establishes that shares held by the Company's employees as well as by the employees of related companies within the meaning of article L. 225-180 of said Code, represent over 3% of the Company's share capital, a Director representing the employee shareholders is appointed in accordance with the procedures set out in regulations in force as well as by these Articles of Association.

Candidates for election to the office of Director representing employee shareholders are designated on the following conditions:

- When the voting right attached to the shares held by the employees and former employees referred to in article L. 225-102 of the French Commercial Code (Code de Commerce) is exercised by the Supervisory Board(s), of one or several company mutual fund(s) ("FCPE"), the Supervisory Board(s) of the FCPE(s), jointly designate(s) no more than two candidates;
- When the voting right attached to the shares held by the employees and, as the case may be, the former employees referred to in article L. 225-102 of the French Commercial Code (Code de Commerce), directly or through a FCPE, is exercised directly by them, no more than two candidates are designated. Each employee shareholder will then have a number of votes equal to the number of shares he holds, directly or indirectly.

Only the employees shareholders or employees who are members of the Supervisory Board of a FCPE holding Company's shares may be candidates.

In order to comply with the obligations, set out in the first paragraph of the article L. 225-18-1 of the French Commercial Code (Code de Commerce) relating to balanced representation of women and men within the Board of Directors:

- Each of the aforementioned colleges aims to designate a candidate of each sex;
- Each candidate shall run with a substitute of the same sex, who must fulfil the same eligibility conditions as the primary candidate.

The Board of Directors presents the candidates to the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting through separate resolutions and, where applicable, approves the resolution relating to its preferred candidate. The Annual Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting decides, under the conditions of quorum and majority applicable to any appointment of a member of the Board of Directors, on the appointment of the Director representing the employee shareholders. The candidate, among those referred to above, who receives the highest number of votes cast by the shareholders present or represented at the Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting, or if necessary on the day of said Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting his substitute, shall be appointed as Director representing employee shareholders.

The term of office of this Director and the conditions for the exercise of his mandate are identical to those of the Directors appointed by the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting.

In the event of loss of the status of employee of the Company or of a company related to it within the meaning of the applicable regulations, the mandate of the Director representing employee shareholders shall terminate automatically.

In the event of a vacancy in the seat of the Director representing employee shareholders, and provided that the Company is still required to appoint a Director representing employee shareholders:

- The Board of Directors may co-opt his substitute. If the co-optation of the latter does not allow compliance with the provisions of article L. 225-18-1 of the French Commercial Code (Code de Commerce) or if he no longer meets the eligibility requirements, the Board of Directors may co-opt a person from among the primary candidates and substitutes designated at the beginning of the process. The ratification of the co-optation will be submitted to the next Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting. The Director shall be appointed for the remainder of the term of office of his predecessor. During the same period, in the event of a new vacancy, the procedures laid down in this paragraph shall also apply; or
- The Board of Directors may decide that a new designation process of candidates shall be followed to appoint a new Director representing employee shareholders, under the conditions described in this article, for a new term of three years.

Under the different circumstances mentioned above, the Board of Directors may meet and validly deliberate until the date of replacement or new appointment.

The provisions of the first paragraph of 3/ shall cease to apply when, at the close of a financial year, the percentage of capital owned by Company employees and employees of related companies under the aforementioned article L. 225-102, represents less than 3% of the share capital, it being specified that the mandate of any Director appointed pursuant to this article will expire at its term.

The procedures describing in detail the organization and conduct of the vote by all the shareholders referred to in the aforementioned article L. 225-102, particularly relating to the timetable for designating the candidates, are determined by the Executive Management, directly or by delegation.

Article 8

The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be appointed from among the members of the Board of Directors.

Upon proposal from the Chairman, the Board of Directors may appoint one or more Vice-Chairmen.

Article 9

The Board of Directors shall meet as often as necessary in the best interests of the Company. Board meetings shall be convened by the Chairman. Where requested by at least one-third of the Directors, the Chairman may convene a Board meeting with respect to a specific agenda, even if the last Board meeting was held less than two months before. The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) may also request that the Chairman convene a Board meeting to discuss a specific agenda.

Board meetings shall be held either at the Company's registered office, or at any other location specified in the notice of meeting.

Notices of meetings may be communicated by any means, including verbally.

The Board of Directors may meet and make valid decisions at any time, even if no notice of meeting has been communicated, provided all its members are present or represented.

Article 10

Board meetings shall be chaired by the Chairman, by a Director recommended by the Chairman for such purpose or, failing this, by the oldest Director present.

Any Director may attend a Board meeting and take part in its deliberations by means of telecommunication subject to compliance with the conditions set out in applicable legislation at the time of its use.

Decisions of the Board of Directors may be taken by means of written consultation, including by electronic means. A proposal for a decision along with the background information necessary to understand the subject will be sent by the Chairman to all the Directors in writing, including electronically. Said proposal is aimed for the Directors to be able to respond with “in favour”, “against”, to abstain or to assert any observations. The deadline of the Directors’ answer should not exceed 3 business days or any other deadline made by the Chairman if the context and the nature of the decision require it. The absence of any response corresponds to a non-participation. Any Director may object to this method of reaching a decision within the indicated period in the above-mentioned proposal.

Any Director who is unable to attend a Board meeting may ask to be represented by a fellow Director, by granting a written proxy, valid for only one specific meeting of the Board. Each Director may represent only one other Director.

At least half of the Board members must be present for decisions taken at Board meetings to be valid.

Should one or both of the offices of Director elected by employees remain vacant, for whatever reason, without the possibility of a replacement as provided for in article L. 225-34 of the French Commercial Code (Code de Commerce), the Board of Directors shall be validly composed of the members elected by the General Shareholders’ Meeting and may validly meet and vote.

Members of the Company’s Executive Management may, at the request of the Chairman, attend Board meetings in an advisory capacity.

A permanent member of the Company’s Central Social and Economic Committee, appointed by said Committee, shall attend Board meetings in an advisory capacity, subject to compliance with the provisions of French laws in force.

Decisions shall be made by a majority of Directors present or represented. In the event of a split decision, the Chairman of the meeting shall have the casting vote, except as regards the proposed appointment of the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors' deliberations shall be recorded in minutes entered in a special register prepared in accordance with French laws in force and signed by the Chairman of the meeting and one of the Directors who attended the meeting.

The Chairman of the meeting shall appoint the Secretary to the Board, who may be chosen from outside the Board's members.

Copies or excerpts of Board minutes may be signed by the Chairman, the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Operating Officers (COOs) or any representative specifically authorised for such purpose.

Article 11

The Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting may grant Directors' remuneration under the conditions provided for by French law.

The Board of Directors shall split this remuneration among its members as it deems appropriate.

The Board of Directors may grant exceptional compensation for specific assignments or duties performed by the Directors under the conditions applicable to agreements subject to approval, in accordance with the provisions of articles L. 225-38 to L. 225-43 of the French Commercial Code (Code de Commerce). The publication of the Company's Articles of Association alone shall not constitute such proof.

The Chief Executive Officer shall be responsible for the organisation and procedures of internal control and for all information required by French law regarding the internal control report.

The Board of Directors may limit the powers of the Chief Executive Officer, but such limits shall not be binding as against third parties.

The Chief Executive Officer may delegate partial powers, on a temporary or permanent basis, to as many persons as he sees fit, with or without the option of redelegation.
